

Drywood Termites

Live inside dry wood, no soil contact

Low moisture requirement

Small colonies

Distinct frass pellets

Through small holes or cracks

Fumigation, localised injection

Feature

Habitat

Moisture

Colony Size

Droppings

Entry Points

Treatment

Subterranean Termites

Live in soil, build mud tubes

High moisture dependency

Large, expansive colonies

No visible droppings

Through ground or foundation

Soil treatment, baiting system